CONTENT CREATOR : As a Content Creator, I bring novelty to businesses with my writing, programming, leadership and artistic skills. If you need something new, Try someone new.

Uyo, Akwa Ibom, Nigeria

Summary

GET TO KNOW ME:

Content creator: Defining myself as a Content creator, I believe there is so much creativity in the world still just a few people can behold it(The creatives)

I intend using my creative mind to give your business an innovative look if you believe in novelty to business .

Content writer: Been a writer was always a passion and in a local palette "This drive na follow come"

I've done articles, short stories, comic writing that pertains B2B, B2C, B2H and also have researching skills and passion for any type of business .

Web developer: I started my web dev journey all in search of content, novelty in web, I started as a code writer but stopped for a while and got mixed with Wordpress which I have an intermediate knowledge of, well I came back to code writing for about a year now and even added Python (A backend language) to it

I have websites I did on Wordpress, I'm still gaining my feet back in coding but I've learnt and really can do some neat job, Try me.

Drawings: This is another follow come passion, I believe in practical, just take a look at my profile and decide (For someone who never learnt this skill) just practice, practice, practice.

Music: Music have always been a brother, comforter and many things to me personally.

I've been a songwriter for 10 years now although still growing but I have songs to my name and published a few.

You see when I said I define myself as a Content creator, It's always been give out novel creative content out there, people need it.

In void of projects taken, handled and completed ,
Coming from an artistic perspective, permit this artist to paint your world.
